

Proclamation

By the Mayor and City Council of the City of Rock Hill, South Carolina

WHEREAS, on behalf of the citizens of the City of Rock Hill, we join Rock Hill School District Three in celebrating the City of Rock Hill Day of Play and in ensuring that today's generation of kids become one of the healthiest, and;

WHEREAS, the City of Rock Hill Day of Play is an entire day dedicated to the celebration of being active and living healthy that encourages kids and families to get outside for a day of exercise and fun in their community; and

WHEREAS, childhood obesity is a serious issue threatening today's youth, and;

WHEREAS, many of today's children and adults don't get as much physical activity as they need, and;

WHEREAS, physical activity and good eating habits are an important component to living a healthy lifestyle and reducing disease, and;

WHEREAS, the City of Rock Hill is committed to working to support kids in becoming the healthiest generation;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that I, Doug Echols, Mayor of the City of Rock Hill, and the Rock Hill City Council do hereby proclaim September 18, 2010 as:

The City of Rock Hill Day of Play

IN OBSERVANCE THEREOF, we call upon the people of the City of Rock Hill to join together in recognizing all those associated with making this endeavor a reality, and wishing them all the very best in the future.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Rock Hill to be affixed.
